2000 IN REVIEW

* Won Sydney with straight-set wins over world No. 1 Hingis, No. 2 Davenport and No. 5 Pierce; in final, snapped Davenport's 11-match winning streak; ranking moved up to a then-career high No. 6; became one of four people to defeat Hingis and Davenport in the same tournament, and the seventh and lowest-ranked (9th) since computer rankings began in 1975 to defeat the world's top two players on consecutive days

* Retired during 2r match at Indian Wells due to a lower back injury (acute sacroiliac joint pain) and was off Tour for seven weeks; returned at Bol and reached final, falling in two tiebreakers to Pisknik

* Joined the Million Dollar Club in career earnings at the German Open

* Reached third final of year at the Italian Open with wins over Top 10 players Pierce and Sanchez-Vicario; reached the SF in doubles, donating her $6,750 doubles prize money to a child in Rome who was severely injured in a car accident

* Reached 4r at Roland Garros, her best showing there in six appearances; was voted by fans as winner of the Prix Sanex du Public as the nicest, best-liked player at the tournament

* Withdrew from tournaments in late July and August, including the U.S. Open, due to a recurring low back injury; also withdrew from the season-ending championships due to a left leg injury 1999

Unseeded, reached final of Australian Open with wins over three seeds including top seed and world No. 1 Davenport, before falling to No. 2 Hingis; was the second Frenchwoman ever to reach the final of the Australian Open, dating back to 1922 (Pierce won it in 1995) and third Frenchwoman to reach any Grand Slam final in the Open Era; became the eighth unseeded Grand Slam finalist in the Open Era

Won first career Sanex WTA Tour title at Bratislava; reached second straight final at home in the Paris Indoors, defeating world No. 1 Hingis in QF to avenge her loss a month earlier in the Australian Open final; lost Paris Indoor final in a third-set tiebreaker to S. Williams

* With win over No. 1 Davenport at Australian Open in January and No. 1 Hingis in February at the Paris Indoors, became the first player ranked outside the Top 10 to defeat two different world No. 1's in a calendar year

* Reached SF of Italian Open and broke into the world's Top 10 rankings following the tournament; three French players ranked in the Top 10 for the first time on May 10, 1999 (Mauresmo, Pierce and Tauziat), making France only the third country after the United States and Australia to have as many players in the world Top 10 since computer rankings began in 1975

* Sprained her right ankle during a doubles match at Roland Garros and missed Wimbledon due to the injury; returned the first week of August in San Diego; re-injured right arm in the fall and withdrew from Filderstadt and Zurich 1998

* At German Open, became the first qualifier and fourth-lowest ranked player (No. 65) to reach a Tier I-level tournament final on the Sanex WTA Tour; having never reached a quarterfinal on Tour, saved match point to qualify for the main draw, then collected first wins over Top 5 players ousting world No. 2 Davenport and No. 3 Novotna; lowest-ranked player to defeat two of the world's top three players in a tournament; fell in final to world No. 9 Martinez 1997

* Won an ITF event in Thessaloniki (GRE), winning the final 6-0, 6-0
